REPUBLIC OF PORTUGAL

Community To Celebrate OFFICIAL RECEPTION

The local Portuguese community will to-day be in fête in celebration of the 26th anniversary of the foundation of the Republic of Portugal.

To mark the occasion, an official reception will be held at the Club Lusitano, Ice House Street, from 11.30 a.m. to 12.30 p.m. The Consul for Portugal, Senhor Alvaro Brilhante Laborinho, will preside and His Excellency the Governor of Hong Kong, Sir Andrew Caldecott, will propose the toast to Great Britain's oldest ally.

To-night, at 9.30 p.m., the annual ball will be held to commemorate the auspicious occasion. The celebrations in Macao will take the form of the usual military parade in the morning, while the residents will gather to celebrate the occasion at the Grand Ball to be held at the Governor's Palace in the evening.

Throughout this week there will be displayed in the Club Lusitano a collection of 100 photographs of Macao, the work of Mr. J. N. Cateia, of the Macao Tourist Bureau. The pictures portray the various angles of life and scenery in the Portuguese Colony. From to-morrow the exhibition will be open to the public.

A new and brilliant era for the peoples of Portugal was initiated in the year 1910. This was the ninth period of her history since she emerged from an obscure

BLAME THE WEATHER!

Gloomy Sunday PROCESSION CANCELLED

Transforming most of the football fields into quagmires, ruining outdoor social events and dampening the spirits of everyone, the rain that fell throughout yesterday broke a spell of fine weather that has continued for some weeks.

On Saturday some indication of the weather to be expected was given—the skies were overcast and threatening throughout the day. The sun made valiant but unsuccessful efforts to break through the clouds.

However a full programme of outdoor sports were undertaken without interruption.

Yesterday, quite a different story was related. From 11.30 a.m. till 6 p.m., approximately one and a half inches of rain were registered at the Royal Observatory.

Sufficient to curtail most sporting events, and to render those undertaken by the hardy, a grim business. Football matches went through without a hitch on slippery surfaces, and the Royal Hong Kong Yacht Club did not allow the rain to cancel their race. The yachts skimming over the surface of the harbour, did in fact, make good pace as the wind was strong.

The greatest disappointment occasioned by the weather was the cancellation of the procession held in connection with the annual festivities at the Rosary Church, Kowloon. All arrangements made had to be cancelled, although indoor rituals relating to the Feast of Our Lady of the Holy Rosary, were held.

ARTISTIC LOUNGE

Now that extensive alterations have been made to the lounge of the Gloucester Hotel, it is one of the most comfortable and artistic rendezvous in the Orient. As our photograph shows, this lounge is light and high roofed.

INTERVIEW REFUSED

Robbery In Manila

LADIES STILL RETICENT

Mrs. Louise Hablithwaite and Miss S. Clark who were robbed and assaulted while they were in Manila a few days ago arrived in the Colony yesterday morning aboard the E. and A. liner Nellora.

When approached by a "Daily Press" representative on board both Mrs. Hablithwaite and Miss Clark refused an interview.

According to a Reuters message the two passengers went ashore on the evening of September 30 when they were robbed and as-

FAR EASTERN HEALTH

The health bulletin of "Eastern ports for the week ending September 28, states:—Plague: Colombo 1 case; Cholera: Calcutta 11 cases; Madras 1 case; Negapatnam 1 case; Chittagong 1 case; Small-Pox: Bombay 4 cases; Phnompenh 1 case; Hong Kong 1 case; Osaka 5 cases.

saulted. Mrs. Hablithwaite was found in the suburb next morning in a semi-naked condition. She was suffering from an injury to her nose.

Owing to the mishap the departure of the Nellora was delayed. Miss Clark walked aboard the vessel shortly before sailing time apparently safe and sound. She refused to relate the incidents leading to her disappearance.

"SEASON" OPENED BRILLIANTLY Hotels Crowded: Excellent Entertainments

If the commendably high standard of entertainment provided by the managements of the leading hotels on Saturday night for the opening of the Winter Season, can be maintained during what is known as one of the gayest periods of the year then a very great deal will have been done in the good cause of human happiness.

Saturday night's opening of the season was brilliant from many angles. There was such variety.

A GERMAN FAIR

One wandered through an entrancing little German village with the members of the German community in a dazzling admixture of peasant clothes. The manner in which they had converted the German Club rooms into a miniature village en fête, replete with beer garden, skittle alley, hoop-la booths, dance hall and interest in little nooks and corners ablaze with coloured lights and flowers and balloons—the conversion was complete in every detail.

In their lovely and elaborate peasant costumes the ladies looked particularly attractive, whilst the gentlemen gained in picturesqueness what some of them could not be expected to achieve in elegance. Certainly the attire of the German Consul-General (Herr G. H. Glipperich) was a revelation of sartorial charm, recalling vividly the quaintness of a distant era.

Of course, there was excellent beer at the German Festival, and much good speaking by the leader of the local Nazi group, Herr Hess, whose obvious sincerity commanded respect and inspired applause.

It is safe to say that the entire spirit of this festival, so splendidly stimulated by the German community, was truly delightful, and the numerous and vivacious guests expressed themselves most enthusiastically and eulogistically concerning the many features of this happy affair.

DINERS AND DANCERS

Much more conventional, but nevertheless entirely animated, was the form of entertainment provided at the Hong Kong and the Gloucester hotels. Both the Roof Garden at the Hong Kong, and the ballroom and restaurant at the Gloucester were booked out, but the fact that tables could not be obtained did not deter many others who were determined to "make a night of it," and so lounge space was pressed into temporary commission to accommodate diners and dancers.

The Roof Garden of the Hong Kong Hotel was a beautiful picture of mellow pink lights, scintillating silver candlesticks, rich and furnishings in a variety of blending tones, and at the far end of this fascinating rendezvous was a black and white grand piano at which Bob and Berty Hellman played and sang all night. They even provided all the music for the characteristically graceful Pat

Sykes and Andrew, exhibition dancers whose ballroom technique is accomplished artistry and elegance. The formality of their act was in keeping with the general tone at the Roof Garden. The Hellmans kept the evening lively, and their fashion of breaking off every little while into some famous melody of long ago brought forth great community-singing responsiveness.

PEP AND SPARKLE

At the Gloucester the atmosphere was electric. Infectiously so—if electricity can be infectious. The wonderfully illuminated and artistically planned ballroom was one big mass of exceedingly jolly people who were quite in harmony with the care-free attitude of the magnetic "Queenie," whose work, by the way, simply fascinated that huge audience. When "Queenie" and her David and the girls came on to the floor, they were greeted with every known form of applause, and when they finished their act they were cheered. The two dancers in this show were amazingly acrobatic and gracefully agile, while Gellman's Cossack band played so that people just had to dance.

TO GET RID OF STOMACH TROUBLES

An English Doctor writes:—

"I find that 'Bisurated' Magnesia taken after most of my meals is the only thing that keeps me free from gas and discomfort, and I take it regularly. I often prescribe it for my patients, and have had very good results."

(Signed) Dr. H. G. M.A., M.R.C.S., L.R.C.P.

THE English doctor is the most conservative medical man in the world, and when he not only recommends but personally uses a remedy there can be no more convincing proof of its efficacy. This doctor is but one of many who constantly advise the use of 'Bisurated' Magnesia in all cases of indigestion. Most stomach trouble is caused by acidity, and the reason why 'Bisurated' Magnesia gives quick relief is that it instantly neutralizes excess acid and soothes, heals and strengthens the inflamed stomach lining. Nothing could be simpler, safer or surer. If you suffer with indigestion or stomach disorder of any kind put your faith in European science and make an end of your troubles by taking 'Bisurated' Magnesia after eating or whenever pain is felt.

M.C.C. TEAM IN CEYLON

Colombo, Oct. 3. The M.C.C. Australian tour cricket team arrived here this morning and indulged in a one-day fixture against All-Ceylon winning by five wickets and 83 runs.

The English team were given a rousing welcome and a large crowd of spectators eagerly looked forward to seeing them in action against the local team.

All-Ceylon won the toss and batted first and scored 149 for four wickets declared. Most of the M.C.C. bowlers were given a turn with the ball and the wickets were shared.

The M.C.C. replied with 232 runs for the loss of five wickets. G. O. Allen, captain, was in sparkling form and at the close of play had 65 to his credit with his wicket still intact. The other chief contributor was Hardstaff with 82 not out.

Wally Hammond, the brilliant England and Gloucestershire batsman, scored 46 in characteristic style.

WOLF CUB HIKE

The following took part in the hike:—A. C. M. Shaw, Sea Scout V. Saunders, Cubes J. Harman, D. Hayden, P. Hopkins, W. Stoppard, E. Holmes, P. Hampson, H. Day, M. McComie, J. McComie, S. Petty, A. Day, R. Clark, E. Tyler and P. Venables.

BLOOMER LOSES RECORD

Dean Scores His 353rd Goal

Everton 3 Sheffield Wed. 1 After 30 minutes in this match at Goodison Park recently, Dean headed a fine goal from a corner and beat Steve Bloomer's League scoring record. It was Dean's 353rd goal in League football.

From a cleverly-placed free-kick Luke equalised in 37 minutes. Stevenson put Everton ahead again in 43 minutes, and Gillick got a third 27 minutes after the interval. Everton deserved victory.

It was a hard struggle, with fast, open football and many clever moves. Stevenson and Coulter, on the Everton left-wing were especially good. Gillick was dangerous, Rimmer, Starling and Hooper were outstanding in the Wednesday attack.

Gee did well at centre-half for Everton, but Handford, who shadowed Dean throughout, did not help his forwards. Everton were rather better served at back, for the Wednesday pair were uncertain when pressed.

Both Sagar and Brown were excellent goal-keepers, Brown having rather more to do than the Everton man, who made two fine saves from Rimmer.

NEW JAPANESE DEMANDS

Tokyo Denunciation Of Report

SHANGHAI PRESS COMMENT

Shanghai, Oct. 3. A violent denunciation of Reuter by a Japanese Foreign Office spokesman, Mr. Eiji Amau, for publishing on the authority of its London diplomatic correspondent the gist of the new Japanese demands or proposals to China, elicits editorial comment in the "Shanghai Evening Post" to-day.

The newspaper says: "There is a familiar ring to Mr. Amau's words. Precisely such words were spoken against the Associated Press when, through the instrument of its Peking correspondent, Mr. Frederick Moore, it broke the story of the 21 Demands. Mr. Moore's story was true and the Japanese knew it was true."

"We do not think Mr. Amau's verbal gun went off half-cocked when he blustered against Reuter. His apparently reckless remarks, to the effect that Reuter's story was based on imaginary propaganda with an ulterior motive and the malicious intent of alienating China from Japan, impress us as thoroughly thought-out and calm."

Frankly we think he acted under orders in an effort to discredit a story that is true, just as the 21 Demands story was true.

"Our information upholds Reuter's version in all respects, and we believe that this agency is being made the scapegoat in an effort to prevent cold facts from hurting Japan's case before the world."

"News agencies and newspapers realise that they run the risk of such eventualities and accept frequent brickbats and much more, occasional bouquets, in a spirit of uniform philosophy."

The demands to which Mr. Amau objected were:—

(1) The right to station troops at various points in the Yangtze for the protection of Japanese residents;

(2) The right to edit school-books to prevent the teaching of anti-Japanese sentiments to school-children in China;

(3) Autonomy for the five Northern provinces; and

(4) Economic co-operation between China and Japan.—

HEARST HITS BACK AT ROOSEVELT

New York, Oct. 2. Mr. William Randolph Hearst persisted in his attacks upon President F. D. Roosevelt to-day, pounding on the theory that the chief executive of the nation has Communist leanings.

"Why should America, or rather the Roosevelt Administration, rush to save the franc?" asked Mr. Hearst in the course of his latest editorial, appearing in all his newspapers. Because, Mr. Hearst answers, Mr. Roosevelt says the franc had gone to pot.

Is Mr. Roosevelt going to stabilise the Russian rouble, which has also gone to pot? Mr. Hearst wants to know.

Describing France as the pet and prize repudiator of the world, Mr. Hearst denies America's right to lend her money, citing the Johnson Act which does not permit loans to debt repudiators. He renews the assertion that President Roosevelt is a Communist surrounded by a Communist entourage.—

FLAG INCIDENT AT VATICAN

Rome, Oct. 2. The former Spanish Imperial flag, which has been adopted by the Nationalists as their emblem, was suddenly seen to fly from the entrance gate of the Spanish Embassy to the Vatican. A crowd of spectators soon gathered, and thought that the Nationalists had definitely won the decisive battle. It was however soon found out that the Ambassador to the Holy See being on vacation, some junior member of the Embassy staff, sympathising with the Nationalists, had hoisted the flag.

In this connection it was pointed out in official quarters, that as yet Italy has not recognised the new Government in Burgos, or their established representations either to the Vatican or the Quirinal.—

FRANCO TAKES OFFICE

Head Of Spanish State

NEW GOVERNMENT'S POLICY

Burgos, Oct. 2.

General Franco was invested with the office of Head of the Spanish State during a festive ceremony, with the oath of allegiance being administered by the President of the National Junta, General Cabanellas.

General Franco declared: "To protect the unity of the Spanish nation, defend the honour and happiness of the Spanish people."

Following the ceremony of investiture, Franco greeted the enthusiastic crowd from the window of the Headquarters of the National Junta, and made a short address, in which he declared:

"Our 'insurrection' was that of people determined not to perish. At the same time however we have rescued the entire civilisation of Europe from the Red terror. Our Government will be one of authority and will be for the welfare of the people."

In a radio broadcast the same evening, General Franco discussed the relations to foreign powers, and said that the National Government is willing to conclude trade agreements with other countries, foremost with those of a not antagonistic nationalist policy.

After the occupation of Madrid, which will occur within two weeks, the National Government will set about the task to rebuild Spain, and will then demand recognition from the foreign powers as sole representative of Spain.

The diplomatic places in foreign countries will be refilled, and new representatives despatched to the League of Nations.—

HIGH COMMISSIONER AT DANZIG

Lester's Successor

Warsaw, Oct. 2.

A general denial to the various rumours current in the last few weeks as to the eventual successor of Sean Lester, formerly League of Nations High Commissioner to Danzig, and who was recalled, appeared in the semi-official "Gazeta Polska".

The suggestion that the new High Commissioner be a Pole, so the paper declares, did not originate in the Polish delegation, nor did an objection from M. Delbos, French Foreign Minister, prevent it. The report that Eden made these proposals without the knowledge of Poland is also false, because Eden and Beck are in close collaboration.

The paper also points out that Litvinov did not oppose an agreement being arrived at between Poland and France and England on this point and closes with the statement that the successor of Sean Lester will not be appointed at present, but will be postponed till the time is more appropriate.—

PHOENIX ISLANDS ANNEXATION Press Report

Berlin, Oct. 2.

The evening papers give much prominence to the formal annexation of a group of islands in the Phoenix Archipelago by Britain, an action which it is pointed out, seems to have been taken in view of increasing Japanese actions in those waters.

The Phoenix Islands are situated about 800 miles north of Samoa, but still south of the Equator, and consist of 8 islands with a total population of 80 persons, and a total area of 80 square miles. Hitherto no power had officially claimed sovereignty, although their flanking position to important bigger islands gives them great strategic value.—

The notorious convict settlement of Cayenne will probably be closed in the near future, according to press reports here, which state that the Government is considering a closure of the establishments for "moral as well as economic" reasons. The Minister of Justice will shortly submit a bill proposing the closure of the penal settlement of Cayenne to Parliament.—

PRINCIPALITY OF MONACCO

Paris, Oct. 2.

A clear line of distinction was drawn between France and the principality of Monaco by Minister of State Bouilloux-Lafont at a press reception.

The Minister pointed out that the sovereignty and independence of Monaco was guaranteed by France in the Treaty of 1918; and this was ratified by all other signatories of the Treaty of Versailles. Foreigners, so the Minister said, were often tempted to regard Monaco as an inseparable part of France. The comparison the Minister then made between France and Monaco did much to enliven the point, the Minister stating that in Monaco there were no taxes, no trade unions, the interests of the foreigners were guaranteed, there were no strikes.—

VATICAN MISSION TO AMERICA

Press Conjectures

Rome, Oct. 1.

The sudden departure of the Papal Secretary of State, Cardinal Pacelli, for the United States, has given rise to much speculation in the Italian press. It is stated that Cardinal Pacelli is travelling on an important mission for the Vatican, and that he will have opportunity to speak to President Roosevelt, and make certain proposals of an eminent political character. The visit might be connected with the intention of the Vatican to appoint a Papal Nuncio, as the United States at present have only an Apostolic Delegate. The standing of the Catholic Church in America would be greatly strengthened if a Nunciature was established there, and might even persuade England to allow a Papal Nuncio in Britain.

It is also suggested in the press that Pacelli's voyage may be connected with the Presidential election. It is known that violent attacks on Roosevelt were made by the famous Radio priest, Father Coughlin, arousing apprehension in Catholic circles, and it is possible that Pacelli may have come as mediator, in view of the fact that hitherto the re-proaches of the Vatican were not heeded by Coughlin, and the official Papal organ, the "Osservatore Romano" felt moved to express bitter disappointment in its columns.

ANONYMOUS
LETTER WRITER
DENOUNCED

"Scandalous Charges"
Ignored By Coroner

OLD WOMAN'S SUICIDE
BY FIRE

Anonymous letter writers were denounced by the Windsor coroner, Mr. J. D. Gale, when holding an inquest on 71-year-old woman who died from burns.
"An anonymous letter" writer," he declared, "is someone of so de-based a character that anything he or she says is unworthy of attention, or someone with a defective brain."

He was investigating the death of
Mrs. Mary Ann Edwards, of Stanley cottages, Stoke-road, Slough.

He said that he had received an anonymous letter from someone claiming to be a relative of the woman.

The letter, he declared, made scandalous allegations. If the writer were in court he asked him or her to step forward, and he would hear the evidence. He would ignore the contents if the writer had not courage to attend the court or sign his or her name to what was alleged.

Mr. Gale added that he would not make the allegations public or let them have any bearing on his decision.

SCREAMS IN THE NIGHT

Kathleen Edwards, a daughter of the dead woman, gave evidence that she was awakened by screams in the night, and found her mother with her nightdress in flames.

Beside her was a paraffin lamp.
The burner was unscrewed and had not been lit. There was paraffin on the floor.

Miss Edwards tried to beat out the flames with her hands, and was severely burned.

A lodger eventually put out the flames with a blanket, and as he did so Mrs. Edwards's nightdress fell away from her in ashes.

The coroner returned a verdict of "Suicide" while of unsound mind.

Mrs. Edwards, he said, must have poured paraffin over herself and then set fire to her night-dress.

Freed from the heavy responset down for all to read his side of the diplomatic history of the Far Eastern crisis which began in September, 1931, with the Japanese seizure of Manchuria and which to-day is still far from ended. It is a wise, outspoken, and constructive record. The indictment of Japan is unsparring and comes with all the greater conviction because Mr. Stimson is a man of wide tolerance and large sympathies.

He was misled at the outset, as others were, with the Japanese Government's assurance that the Army was acting more or less in self-defence; but once he realized that the Army was in fact acting in "defiant disregard" of those assurances and was engaged on an unprovoked aggression he formed, and followed, unwaveringly, a policy which was both courageous and enlightened.

Mr. Stimson finds fault, in all charitableness, with "the timidity or overcautiousness" which marked British policy at certain stages of the dispute, and he is inclined to think that the influence of the City was too predominant; but he makes handsome acknowledgment of the warmth and value of British cooperation later. Significant in the proof he provides of the Administration's willingness not only to collaborate with the League of Nations in decisive action but also to act in advance of the League.
It was due to American initiative, and even insistence, that the principle of non-recognition of a territorial acquisition made by aggres-

BLUM'S VISIT TO GENEVA

Paris, Oct. 2.
In many Paris papers the view is expressed that the visit of Premier Blum to Geneva will hasten the settlement of many questions.
"Intransigent" points out that Blum's presence will serve to accelerate the preparations for the Five Power Conference on the one hand, and relieve a certain mistrust of going to the Conference, on the other.

morrow on the Murray Parade

Band and Bugle March
"Royal South Downs"

It was, accepted, and honoured
by the Powers at Geneva.
In a final chapter which deserves to be seriously considered, Mr.
Stimson discusses tendencies in the "frightened and discouraged world" of to-day. He holds that the chief defect of the League is that it is "tied to the Treaty of Versailles" and has thus been made the agency for an attempt to preserve the "status quo" in a situation which required change and growth. In a developing world there is no place but only gravest risk for what he calls a "strait jacket." As for the actual work of war-prevention, he says for-thrightly that the cooperation of the United States with the League would be "a comparatively easy matter," provided only that the leadership was resolute. The ultimate success of sanctions calls for momentum. Of the great responsibilities of leadership which fall on Great Britain and the Dominions he writes with frankness, and he boldly expresses his belief that the great majority of his countrymen share his own feeling of the importance of Anglo-American cooperation "in the solution of the problems of this troubled world."

THE DEPTHS BELOW

Dolores Del Rio, Richard Dix and Chester Morris were selected for the leading roles in "The Depths Below," which Columbia will shortly place in production under the direction of Erle Kenton.
Richard Dix was seen in the lead in Columbia's "Devil's Squadron," while Mr. Morris has just completed the principal male part opposite Fay Wray in "They Met in a Taxi."

Miss Del Rio, now under long-term contract to Columbia, has been starred and featured in screen productions for a number of years. Her first important role and one that brought her overnight acclaim was as "Charmaine" in "What Price Glory." More recently, she was seen in "Wonder-Bar," "Madame Du Barry," "In Callente," "I Live For Love," and
"Widow from Monte Carlo."

Popular on the stage and screen as a star and leading man, Richard Dix has been appearing in pictures for a number of years. Some of the many successful productions in which he gave noteworthy performances were "The Christian," "Nothing But The Truth,"
"Seven Keys to Baldpate," "Cimarron," "The Conquerors" and "Redskin." More recently he was seen in "Stingaree," "His Greatest Gamble," "West of the Pecos" and "The Arizona." Chester Morris, recently signed contract player, had a long and brilliant career on the stage before making his screen debut eight years ago in "Alibi."

"THE BRIDE WALKS OUT"

"The Bride Walks Out" which opened on Sunday at the Queen's Theatre with Barbara Stanwyck in its stellar role, delineates money troubles and sentiment in a manner which twists these serious matters into gay situations.

Robert Young, as a waggish playboy, pits his money against Gene Raymond's ambition and $35 a week, to influence Miss Stanwyck, as Raymond's wife, to obtain a divorce and marry him.
Miss Stanwyck's role is quite different from her usual serious dramatic assignments, and her performance is in keeping with her part. Raymond and Young are part of a featured cast which includes Ned Sparks and Helen Broderick, newest of Hollywood's laugh-snatchers.

Leigh Jason, who directed Miss Broderick and Raymond in "Love on a Bet" an earlier comedy hit of the season, puts "The Bride Walks Out" through the paces for RKO Radio from a scenario by Phillip Epstein and
P. J. Wolfson.

"THE POOR LITTLE RICH GIRL"

Shirley Temple stars in "The Poor Little Rich Girl," her new Fox film showing at the King's and Alhambra Theatres. Louis Silver, head of the Twentieth Century-Fox music department, has enumerated the various song bits that Shirley introduced to the screen.

Her record to date is eighteen and, according to Silvers, many of these numbers are bound to find a permanent place in the folk-songs of America.

The songs featured in "The Poor Little Rich Girl" were written by Mack Gordon and Harry Revel. Irving Cummings directed the production which, in addition to Shirley, features an exceptional supporting cast including Alice Faye, Gloria Stuart, Jack Haley and Michael Whalen.

BUDDY EBSAN PLAYS SAILOR IN ELEANOR POWELL PICTURE

Buddy Ebsan has been assigned the role of a sailor in Eleanor Powell's new musical, "Born To Dance."

The long-haired dancing comedian, who is forbidden by his contract to cut his locks, made his first screen appearance in "Broadway Melody Of 1936" and later appeared with Shirley Temple in "Captain January." He is well-known on Broadway and on the Continent, having appeared for a season in Monte Carlo in the Sporting d'Elle. On Broadway and on the road he starred in Ziegfeld productions.

The cast of "Born To Dance" includes James Stewart, Virginia Bruce, Una Merkel, Frances Langford, S'd Silvers, Raymond Walburn, Juanita Quigley and others.
Roy Del Ruth is directing with Jack Cummings as producer.
Cole Porter has written the musical and Dave Gould is directing the

KING JAMES VI

Valuable Gift To Buchanan Society

A ROYAL MINIATURE

A miniature of James VI of Scotland and I. of England, painted by Isaac Oliver, has been presented to the Buchanan Society by Mr. William George Buchanan of Clairinch, a collateral descendant of George Buchanan, the famous Latinist and historian who was Privy Purse of Mary Queen of Scots and tutor to King James.

Intimation of the gift, was made at a meeting of the directors of the Buchanan Society in Glasgow recently.

Mr. Buchanan, the donor of this valuable gift, whose London residence is in Park Lane, recently bought Clairinch, an island in Loch Lomond, from the Duke of Montrose. He purchased the miniature last year from an antique dealer in Stirling, whose shop is just over a stone's throw from the castle where King James was tutored by George Buchanan. The painter, Isaac Oliver, was born about the year 1556 and died in 1617.

It is a portrait of King James, enclosed in a locket of enamel and fine gold measuring 2 1/2 in. by 2 in.

A ROMANTIC HISTORY

The miniature would appear to have a romantic history, but inquiries in Stirling have not thrown much light on the mystery of its origin. Messrs John Yates and Son, antique dealers, Spital Street, whose little shop has been visited by foreign royalties and other distinguished curio hunters, acquired the portrait privately several years ago.

They are unable to reveal the source of their purchase as they are under a pledge of secrecy in the matter, but it would appear to have come from a local family in whose possession it has been for generations. The original owners were probably descendants of the famous George Buchanan.

Little interest was attracted to the miniature, evidently, until Mr.
Buchanan recently visited the Stirling antique shop, although Messrs Yates realised that it was a valuable article. Mr. Yates, jun., showed the locket to Mr. Buchanan, and he was so enchanted with the exquisite artistry of the portrait and the fine craftsmen-ship of the frame and case that he did not leave the shop until he had become its possessor.

AN EXPERT'S OPINION

It was at first thought that the miniature was the work of Nicolas Hilliard, a notable sixteenth-century painter of portraits in miniature, who worked in the style of Holbein. King James's portrait was submitted for expert opinion to Dr. George Williamson, Guild-ford, Surrey, who stated that it was not by Hilliard, but had undoubtedly been painted by Isaac Oliver. Dr. Williamson pointed out that he could see traces of the well-known monogram, "I O" on the miniature in gold, as was Oliver's custom, although the letters were slightly injured by reas-son of the dropping off of a tiny morsel of the gold leaf, or the shifting of an equally small piece of it, perhaps by reason of damp, or by reason of its having been treated with less care than it deserved. What remains of the monogram now appears to have taken the form of a star, but in the expert's opinion it definitely constitutes the signature of Isaac Oliver, only very slightly damaged.
He also adds that the script is not that of Hilliard.

A PRECIOUS WORK OF ART

With regard to the portrait Dr.
Williamson states that in his opinion it is one of the very finest by Isaac Oliver that he has ever seen, and is untouched and undamaged except to the extent already indicated. Otherwise it is in perfect order.

It is, he says, a very precious miniature, and, moreover, it is contained in its original contemporary enamel frame, although a small portion of the enamel has become damaged by the lapse of time. The miniature and its frame is, in his view, of considerable value.

Dr. Williamson further adds that the portrait is undoubtedly that of King James VI and I, and is one of the best portraits of the monarch he has ever seen. It sometimes resembles the one in Minley Manor, but is finer than the one belonging to Lawrence Currie.

FAMOUS MINIATURIST

Isaac Oliver, whose name is sometimes spelled Olivier, appears to have been of French origin, but his contemporaries regarded him as an Englishman. There is

OLD MUSIC HALL TO COME DOWN

Newspapers report the conclusion of negotiations as a result of which the Alhambra Theatre in Leicester Square, an old time music hall and later the home of ballet and variety, will be pulled down and a cinema, will be erected on the site.—

It is notified that at the expiration of three months the Film Producing and Printing Company, Limited, will, unless cause is shown to the contrary, be struck off the register and the company will be dissolved.

some doubt as to the exact year of his birth, but 1556 is regarded as the probable date. His death took place in 1617. Oliver was a Pupil of Nicholas Hilliard, who also gained fame as a miniaturist, but Oliver's work often excelled that of his master.

Both derived something of their style from Hans Holbein. Oliver painted most of his miniatures on a light blue ground, but sometimes on a crimson satin ground.
The blue ground is adopted in the portrait of King James. He gave great attention to the details of costume, armour, jewels, and other accessories, with a decorative purpose. It is on record that he painted King James, his family, and most of the Court of that period, as well as many of the nobility.

Among his more notable works, apart from the royal miniatures, is a full-length portrait of Sir Philip Sydney, now in the royal collection at Windsor. Oliver's miniatures are to be found in a good many private collections, including those of the Duke of Buccleuch, the Duke of Devonshire, and the Earl of Derby. In 1615 he commenced a large limning of "The Entomment of Christ," with a great number of figures. This was left uncompleted at his death, and it eventually passed into the royal collection.

C. W. A. Scott who has again proven his almost superhuman ability to win Air Races, paid definite tribute to the supreme value of 'Ovaltine'. On his arrival in Johannesburg he immediately acknowledged the great help which 'Ovaltine' had given him in his magnificent achievement.

Practical experience in many other notable feats of endurance, and in all conditions of everyday life, has proved that 'Ovaltine' is unequalled for maintaining perfect physical fitness and abundant vitality.

Chung Shing, coolie, was bound over by Mr. S. F. Balfour, at the Central Magistracy on Saturday, when he was charged with trespassing on Crown land in Hillier Street.

Det-Sergt. Pilkington said that the defendant was seen near a manhole, removing the cover. Another man was inside. By sieving the silt they would be able to find grains of gold left over from a gold-smiths' shop nearby.

Mr. Wells of the P.W.D., stated that the manhole was situated in the middle of the street and these men were taking a considerable risk in descending it, besides causing a danger to traffic.

LORRIES COLLIDE

A collision between two lorries occurred on the road outside the Chung Shing Benevolent Bathing shed at 1.45 p.m. on Saturday. Nobody was hurt.

Si Man Kam, 41, unemployed, was charged before Mr. E. Hims-worth at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday for the possession of two engraved plates for forging $5 bank notes of Kwang Tung Provincial Bank.

Acting Sub-Inspector A. Kinnear stated that on September 21 at 4.45 p.m. Chu Chi Po, Inspector of the Chinese Maritime Customs was on duty at the Kowloon Railway Station when he saw the defendant carrying a wooden tub containing fruits. The defendant was stopped and in the hollow bottom of the tub were found the two plates. The prosecuting officer asked his Worship to take a serious view.

Mr. F. I. Zimmern, for the defence, stated that defendant made his living by carrying goods to Canton and Hong Kong. He had a wife and three children.

Defendant stated that the plates were given to him by Leung Kwai Sing, who is sought by the Police, and that he was told they were trade marks for medicine.

His Worship imposed a fine of $400 or, in default, six months. The tub and plates were confiscated.

Continuing, Mr. Sin said that the complainant left the shop of his own accord.

Mr. Balfour ordered the defendant to pay the complainant $1 as compensation.

NEW CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

Foundation Stone Laid By Bishop Valtorta

BOON TO PENINSULA WHEN COMPLETED

The foundation stone of the new Children's Hospital and Orphanage building in grounds of the Precious Blood Convent at Shumshuipo was laid by the Bishop H. Valtorta on Saturday afternoon in the presence of a large gathering. The stone was inscribed as follows:—"To the Glory of God this Foundation Stone was laid by His Lordship the Right Reverend Bishop H. Valtorta on October 3, 1936." The Bishop was presented with a silver trowel by Messrs. Sum Tai & Co., the contractors of the new hospital.

After the ceremony the Chairman (Mr. Tse Yung Kwong) addressing the gathering said:—

"This building which is under construction is expected to be completed in 10 months' time and by then it will be a boon to the Peninsula.

The reason that we have not been afraid of encountering great hardship in raising funds for the cost of erecting it shows its great importance to the poor people. In view of the rapid development of the industrial districts on the mainland, the work being done in the Children's Hospital and Clinic increases beyond any conception. As has often been repeated since its inception in the year 1931, the need of expanding the hospital, which is at present housed, and in a small measure run, in a part of the Convent building, has been keenly felt by the Sisters and the doctors. A more spacious and better-equipped institution should have been in existence long ago to cope with the situation. But the cost of erecting the new hospital requires money, and it is very difficult for the Sisters and the small Hospital Committee to embark upon such a big scheme.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE

"Nevertheless, as the state of things and the huge crowd daily crowded in the hospital roused the pity of the community, while the good care and kindnesses shown by the doctors to the sick and their poor mothers impressed them so deeply, they, after having thought the matter over and over again, came to an unanimous decision that the good work of the noble doctors should not be checked from expanding by difficulties in getting money for putting up the building. "With this object in view a committee was separately formed on June 5, 1934, for the raising of funds, while the success of the scheme was greatly due to the valuable assistance of His Lordship, who obtained from the Governor-in-Council permission to use the site next to the convent for the purpose of building a hospital.

COMMUNITY THANKS

"Thanks to the generosity of the community and the hard work of the energetic committee we have now in our possession a sum of about $25,000 and a promise of about another $5,000, to be paid at a later date. It is a pleasure to mention that whilst we were in difficulties about raising enough funds, Mr. Fred Kew came to our assistance and kindly consented to help us to undertake the supervision of the building work.

"It is hoped that before long the children of the poorer class will have a better chance to free themselves from suffering when the modern hospital is completed."

COMMITTEE MEMBERS

The hospital Extension Building Committee consists of:—Hon. President, Rt. Bishop H. Valtorta; Chairman, Tse Yung Kwong; Hon. Secretary, Chan Wai Chuen; Hon. Treasurer, Chan Yip Yu; Committee members: Messrs. Lai Chung To, Wong Tat Wing, Wong Yu Nam, So Shing Hon, John Moraes, Leung Yu Wing, Tse Ka Po, Tam Shou Son, Li Chun Wah, Tang Yung, Li Fong, Wong Kin Hong, Wong On Chuen, Drs. Y. Y. Tang, Asioe Ho, and Chan Wah.

The following honorary doctors are to be in attendance at the new hospital three times a week, but will also be available at any time during the day for emergency cases:—Drs. M. Nicholson, D. Hope-Gill, A. P. Guterres, Y. Y. Tang, Asioe Ho and (Mrs.) Lydia Philby. Those who have subscribed towards the building fund are:—Messrs. Tse Yung Kwong ($5,000), Fung Keong ($2,500), C. M. Kwan ($1,000), Kwan Chak Man ($3,000), and Messrs. Chan Wai Chuen, Tse Ka Po, Wong Yu Nam, Li Chun Wah, Tam Shou Son, Tang Yung, Mrs. Fung Cheng Tin Yin, Mrs. Chan Lai Ying and the Longevity Milk Company (each $500). Mr. Fung Keong has promised a further subscription of $2,500.

ANNUAL BAZAAR A SUCCESS

A picturesque ceremony was performed by the Right Rev. Bishop H. Valtorta in declaring open the annual bazaar of the Precious Blood Convent at Shumshuipo on Saturday. On arrival at the Convent, his Lordship was led to the committee table where he smashed a jar and drew out a ticket entitling him to a prize.

The bazaar was well attended and it is understood that a sum in excess of $200 was realized within an hour of opening. There were lucky dips, games of skill, embroidered handwork and toys for sale in addition to sweets, cakes and refreshments.

The bazaar was continued yesterday.

BODY FOUND ON ISLAND

Another Man Said To Be Missing

A body discovered on Crescent Island, has been identified as that of Tseung Tai Cheong, aged 52, boatman of Chiu Kang Village, Shataikok, who left the village on September 15, in the company of a foki. It is understood that no trace of the foki has yet been made.

The two men left the village with a load of firewood which they intended to transport to Shaokwan.

Both men were missing for days, until on Friday the dead body was discovered on the island. The Police are now pursuing enquiries.

DEVALUATION OF SWISS FRANC

Mainly As Operation Of Alignment

The devaluation of the Swiss franc presents itself mainly as an operation of alignment on the leading world currencies. The legal gold cover is not modified and will remain at 40 per cent. The limits of the devaluation have been set between 34, 5 and 25, 94 per cent. It is considered that the new level, which, in fact, stands provisionally at 30 per cent under the precedent party, will allow the Swiss cost of production, formerly too high, a sufficient adaptation to enable the revival of business and bring new impetus to exports.

Banking activities and dealings in gold or in securities shall be in no way restricted, as the monetary situation remains very solid while the reserve of gold is maintained at its very high level; the Government's persistently prudent financial policy and the sound budgetary situation furnish, on the other hand, the strongest guarantees. All the necessary measures have been taken to avoid a rise in the cost of living.

SUCCESSFUL FUNCTION AT HOTEL CECIL

Large Attendance At Carnival Ball

MEMBERS SHORTLY LEAVING

The Health and Strength League, local section, held a successful Carnival Ball at the Phoenix Ballroom of the Hotel Cecil on Saturday night for the purpose of bidding farewell to some of its members in the Royal Ulster Rifles.

The function was voted an unqualified success and was attended by over 300 persons, all of whom entered into the spirit of the Ball and although it lasted until 2 a.m. the function seemed to pass much too quickly.

The decoration and gala attire with streamers, greenery, balloons and palms at the entrance leading to the lift in the Ball Room presented a very animated and jovial scene. The Centre of attraction was at the Band Stand in front of which flags were put up; coloured lights were fitted all round, and a huge portrait of H.M. King Edward VIII hung in the middle and in full view of the audience.

With Music supplied by the Dance Orchestra of the Royal Ulster Rifles (by kind permission of Lt. Col. R. M. Rodwell and Officers of the Regiment) dancing which started after 8.30 went with a swing. What proved of great attraction to the audience, were the following novelties, spot dances, carnival numbers and slipper dances the prizes for these were presented by Mrs. A. E. Hole. For entertainment a contribution of tap dancing was kindly presented by Mr. W. P. Huges, the well-known tap dancer.

GOODWILL AND FRIENDSHIP

The following speech was given by Mr. W. E. Hewitt S/L.D.O. on behalf of the club.

He said:—"Ladies and gentlemen, please do not think me unkind if I interrupt your dancing for a few moments, for I would like to take this opportunity of thanking you all on behalf of the League and its Committee for your kind attendance here tonight. I do hope you all are spending an enjoyable evening.

"The success of this function is not only a means to the end of procuring social entertainment to fellow members; it goes far beyond that. Obviously the large attendance here tonight bidding farewell to some of our members is, I am happy to say, ample evidence of good will, warm spirit and friendship among members of the League and of course from an athletic point of view. It is a beneficial way of spending one's leisure. Therefore, anything that can be done to promote the welfare of these functions shall be done to the best of the ability of the Committee, with your support.

"You all know the object for which this Ball is held. I would, therefore, take this opportunity of saying a few words to those soon leaving us. One of them is our former Secretary, Mr. McGoffen, who unable to attend this evening owing to ill health. Having held the post for some considerable time he has done much for us during the previous function. It is a deep regret to members and especially to the Committee to lose his services in that capacity. I wish him, among others with whom he is about to leave, the best of luck and success for the future. Time does not permit me to name the long list of those leaving and the good work they have done for the Club, but I am sure tonight's function will remind them of their happy association with us." (Applause).

THEME SERVICE

A special theme service was held in the West Lounge of the European Y.M.C.A. last night. The service was conducted by the Rev. J. D. MacLean, Minister of the Kowloon Union Church. The musical programme was provided by Mrs. F. Short.

WHIST DRIVE

AMENDMENT DRAFTED

Stamp Duties Management Ordinance

The "Government Gazette" publishes a draft Bill of an Ordinance to amend the Stamp Duties Management Ordinance, 1911.

Be it enacted by the Governor of Hong Kong, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

This Ordinance may be cited as the Stamp Duties Management Amendment Ordinance, 1936.

Section 3 of the Stamp Duties Management Ordinance, 1911, is amended by the repeal of sub-sections (3) and (4) thereof, and by the insertion of the following sub-section after sub-section (2) thereof:—

(3) Every such licence shall be subject to such conditions, to be specified thereon, as the Collector may see fit to impose.

Sub-section (1) of section 4 of the Stamp Duties Management Ordinance, 1911, is amended by the insertion of the words "or in contravention of any condition of his licence" after the words "not specified in his licence" in the fourth line thereof.

OBJECTS AND REASONS

Clause 2 of this Bill repeals two sub-sections of section 3 of the principal Ordinance, No. 35 of 1911, which provide for the giving of security by bond or otherwise in the sum of one thousand dollars by licensed dealers in unused stamps, and substitutes a sub-section making the licensee subject to such conditions as the Collector of Stamp Revenue may see fit to impose.

Clause 3 of the Bill makes the contravention of any condition of the licence a summary offence. It is intended to licence certain shop-keepers, in Salwanho, Mong-kok, Hunghom and other places where it is inconvenient to establish post-offices, for the sale on their premises of postage stamps at their face value and without commission. As it is intended that the licensee will carry only small stocks, which are to be issued to them, with adequate safeguards, on written requisition against cash payment, it is considered that the security required by section 3 (3) of the principal Ordinance, as it stands at present, is unnecessary.

"DOUBLE-TENTH" CELEBRATION

Commemoration At University

The staff and undergraduates of the University of Hong Kong will gather on Saturday morning to commemorate the Double Tenth Anniversary.

A group photograph will be taken, after which they will assemble in the Great Hall to pay homage to the late Dr. Sun Yat Sen by bowing three times before his portrait and observing two minutes' silence.

An address by the President of the Students' Union will be followed by a speech by Professor Hsu Ti-shan.

The meeting will be closed by all singing the Chinese National Anthem.

GENEROUS RESPONSE

It is anticipated that the $50,000 mark will soon be reached with subscriptions for the purchases of an aeroplane as a birthday presentation to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, which has been undertaken by several local Chinese organizations.

PROCESSION CANCELLED

Rosary Church Festival

The inclement weather experienced throughout yesterday postponed the traditional annual observance of the Feast of our Lady of the Holy Rosary, at the Rosary Church, Kowloon, which was to take the form of a very picturesque procession along a flower-lined route.

However the quarter-of-a-mile circuit, round the Church grounds in which members of priesthood of the Roman Catholic denomination, together with the laity, school children, choir boys and Boy Scouts were to process, presented a pleasing sight early in the morning, as they were already gaily lined with flowers.

All preparations were made, but it was only agreed to cancel arrangements at the last moment when it was seen that the weather would not clear up sufficiently.

Other observations in connection with the feast proceeded without interruption of the "Clerk of the Weather," early Low Mass being performed at 8.30 a.m. followed by two other masses at hourly intervals. At 9.30 a.m. Pontifical Mass was observed, with a large attendance of the congregation.

Later in the evening, the recitation of the Rosary, and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, were held which were largely attended. During the evening service, the Rev. Fr. J. O'Meara, S.J., delivered an inspired sermon.

CORONATION TREES ACROSS ENGLAND

"The Men of the Trees" announce that the preparations for their contribution to the Coronation planting scheme are almost complete. When a committee of trees and gardens societies representatives met in July to consider some general plan Mr. R. St. Barbe Baker, the founder of "The Men of the Trees" suggested the planting of trees from Land's End to John o' Groat's. He said recently that in almost all the English counties committees of the society had already been formed to consider the best planting for each county. The plan was, he said, to have groups of nine trees in the shape of a King Arthur's shield, with an oak in the centre of the group, planted on high ground right across the country.

Planting was to start in the Duchy of Cornwall on November 11—there could be no better date, he said, for beginning such a commemorative scheme—and would thence go north and east. The trees used would be hardwood, natural to the country, and the reason for planting in the shape of the King Arthur's shield was that if the point was facing the prevailing southwest wind it would give strong wind resistance. Open spaces in villages and newly built-up areas would also be planted. A hundred thousand trees, he said, had been planted for the Jubilee. There would be many more than this, he thought, for the Coronation.

FILMS AND RADIO IN AFRICA

In many sections of the world—parts of Africa among them—Mickey Mouse and Charlie Chaplin are familiar to thousands of people who would not at once recognize the King of England or the President of the United States. The intentional or unintentional propaganda of the films is intimate and far-reaching.

Not less extensive in its power of touching multitudes is the radio.

These two agencies may not yet equal the collective power of the press. But in backward countries which are comparatively illiterate the cinema and broadcasting penetrate where the influence of the written word is still slight. Pictures made in American or British studios, voices radiocast over the ether, reach the heart of central Africa, and are spreading among ignorant races ideas, true or false, of the lives and thoughts of white people.

On these influences the prestige of the white races to no small extent depends. Travelers assert that the African mind is subtly affected by pictures of white people shown on the screen and by their voices heard on the radio. For British colonies these influences present a problem of the first magnitude, said Sir Stephen Tallents in an address to delegates attending the Royal Empire Society's Summer School. He added that they would probably look in vain for any mention of it on the agenda of next year's Imperial Conference.

But the British Colonial Office is not neglecting the question. An official committee is at work dealing specifically with these two problems—the cinema and broadcasting. The latter is the easier to control, owing to the far-reaching powers of the British Broadcasting Corporation, which has recently made much progress in improving its special Empire programmes and the means of transmitting them from Davenport. But the films present greater difficulties.

It is probably true, as Sir Stephen maintained, that Britain now possesses the leading school of documentary film-makers in the world, and documentary films have a special use in backward countries. But imaginative work cannot be excluded, and here insistence upon suitable pictures is not easy. The case for a severely censored cinema in Britain or America is open to question, but its necessity in backward regions of Africa is clear. There, the British Empire must face the problem of interpreting itself to itself. It must insist that the mechanism which the white man has introduced should not disseminate false and pernicious impressions of white civilization.

FIRST KING EDWARD VIII PILLAR-BOX

The first pillar-box of the new pattern bearing the monogram of King Edward VIII is to be erected in the grounds facing Balmoral Castle in place of one which bears King Edward the Seventh's monogram. The new box, which has been specially built, will probably be used by the Castle staff when the King visits Balmoral.

SPURS MAKE HISTORY

With "Fairy-Tale" Transfer

Here's a real Soccer romance for you—and one that's made Soccer history. In 1929 Mr. Jack Tresadern was manager of Northampton Town. Someone gave him a tip. Told him to watch a young outside left in the London Business Houses League.

"Young man was Leslie Miller. Manager Tresadern saw him. Was impressed, and persuaded him to sign amateur forms for Northampton."

Miller made several appearances for them in the Northants League. Manager Tresadern was even more impressed. Asked him to turn professional.

Miller refused, returned to London and played for Barking. He was seventeen then.

Soon he went to France with a motor firm. As a part-time professional over there he earned about £15 a week.

60 GOALS IN SEASON

Bit by bit, Miller's play developed, and he became the idol of French football. In the 1933-34 season he scored sixty goals from the wing.

It was during this summer that, meteorological experts tell us, has just ended, that a party of French Soccer officials visited Tottenham Hotspur's ground to see ex-Northampton manager, Mr. Tresadern.

"Now these French officials told Mr. Tresadern a lot about some wonderful English boy. They just called him Leslie."

Mr. Tresadern, of course, always on the lookout for something good, made judicious inquiries about this Leslie.

Imagine his amazement when he learnt that Leslie's surname was Miller! None other than the lad he had tried to sign for Northampton seven years back.

Before Mr. Tresadern could make any sort of deal the English F.A. had to inquire from the French F.A. whether they would release Miller, who was on Souchaux's retained list.

French F.A. gave their consent, so recently—

The first transfer ever of a French F.C. professional to an English club made, dashing, twenty-four-year-old, left winger Leslie Miller a Hotspur.

THE MINT PLANS A NEW THREEPENNY-BIT

Bigger, With A Different Edge And Colour

The authorities of the Mint have submitted to the Treasury proposals for the issue of a new threepenny bit.

The size suggested is midway between that of the sixpence and shilling with a distinctive edge and colour. The new coin would not be made of silver or nickel.

While preserving the circular shape the edge may be slightly waved, or minutely slotted, in order to distinguish it more effectively from the shilling and the sixpence.

A final decision has yet to be made on the exact character of the proposed new coin, but the Mint authorities consider that a new threepenny piece of some kind is necessary, and it is anticipated that the Treasury will agree.

IN SCOTLAND

The proposed new coin could be turned out with existing machinery at the Mint. The issue would have to be authorised by Order in Council.

It is not proposed to call in existing threepenny pieces if the new coin is authorised. They would disappear eventually by ordinary wastage, especially under the heading of "lost."

In Scotland, however, where the threepenny bit so despised in England is popular, the old coin might be kept in circulation.

The Mint authorities, in making their proposal, have been partly influenced by representations from business people against the three-penny piece as a small and inconvenient coin.

SOCIAL NOTES

By ANNETTE

AT THE 'GLOUCESTER'

The "Gloucester" was crowded on Saturday night by hundreds of people eager to see the cabaret and hear the Cossack orchestra, both of which were a huge success.

After the first Hawaiian dance everyone was given a bright garland to wear, which added to the gaiety of the colourful scene.

I saw Lady MacGregor, who looked charming, talking to Mrs. Hoover who was as vivacious as ever. Major and Mrs. Campbell brought their party; she was in a flowered georgette which suited her very well. Also in her party was Mrs. Clegg-Hill in ice blue, the Hayters and Mr. Howorth. I saw Miss Anna May Wong dancing with Mr. Eric Nelson and in the same party was her sister Lulu.

Miss Wong was strikingly dressed in white satin with an elaborately embroidered golden dragon relieving the severity of this very effective ensemble.

Mrs. Edwin Taylor was in a lace dress in a shade of pastel pink, her daughter Mary was in black. Mrs. White, who has just come from Malta was with them.

Miss Carlisle looked very striking in a well-cut red dress.

Miss Burkhardt looked very dainty in a black net frock with long sleeves.

The "Tubby" Garwoods were in Captain Mitchell's party also Valerie Morris looking very fresh in white and gold. Mrs. Weiden wore one of the new smart high-necked dresses which suited her extremely well. Mrs. Ravenhill wore a becoming shade of green.

Mr. Jack Armstrong brought a large party, amongst whom I saw Mrs. Whitam as smart as ever. Mrs. Paton looked charming in a red checked dress, she is looking very fit after her stay in Japan.

Mrs. Scott in a lovely satin dress with Captain Scott were amongst those who gave a party. I saw Mrs. Clough-Taylor looking extremely smart in black. Mrs. Jenks was in a soft flowing white dress. Miss Sylvia Morris was in green lace.

Mrs. Currie looked very charming in a soft wine-coloured frock. I also saw Miss Minna Whitam in a cheerful party. Mrs. Stevens was in a beautiful black dress and Mrs. Bathurst looked very attractive in a dress with a printed design. Mr. and Mrs. S. E. C. Walker were there, she was in a dress of a beautiful shade of blue, also Mr. and Mrs. Reggie Walker were there she was in a very attractive white dress. Captain and Mrs. Bridge were dining there. She was attractive in white. I also saw the Conways dancing together. Mrs. Conway in a lovely shade of blue.

Queenie and her troupe delighted the audience. By special request she sang several very attractive songs, the first one, "A little green shack" was sung specially for Mabel Carlisle, who looked very striking in a red georgette gown.

The dances by the Hula girls brought the house down. The music seems to get right into your soul. Nina and Jose executed their Mexican Tango to perfection, such as Hong Kong has never seen before.

There is no doubt that Hong Kong responds with enthusiasm to a first-class show. There must have been, at least 400 people up at Gloucester Hotel dining room.

Among the parties there we noticed:

Mr. Hoover in a party with Mr. and Mrs. Walker.

Mr. Eric Nelson escorted Anna May Wong who later on joined a party with Mr. and Mrs. Grossman, Dr. and Mrs. Li Shu Fan.

Mr. Oscar Eager was one of the few who really let himself go, and seemed to enjoy every minute of it, was in a party with Mr. and Mrs. Humphreys, and Mrs. Baines who looked very smart in black velvet.

The Patons were in a party with Mr. and Mrs. Jupp and Mr. and Mrs. Whitam.

Mrs. Stevens was dancing with Mr. Frank Howard, Mrs. Bathurst was in the same party with some naval officers.

THE TYPHOON BAR

Looking through portion of the Gloucester Hotel lounge towards the spacious Tophoon Bar which combines modernity with a mellowness atmosphere created by the deftly devised furnishings

The Navy and Army were in full force, including Lieut.-Commander and Mrs. Conway, Commander and Mrs. Hayter, Mrs. Currie, Captain and Mrs. Scott, Mrs. "Chips" Davis was there dancing with Colonel Brewer. All the Wylles were there, including Mr. Ben Wylle's daughter, and Mrs. and Mr. L. R. Wylle.

Mrs. Pringle, very nice and smart in a flowered silk crepe gown, and seemed to be thoroughly enjoying herself.

Mrs. Taylor appeared to be highly amused at "Queenie's" acting and singing.

It is quite impossible to give a complete list of those present, as it would be safe to say that most of Hong Kong. Later on, in the evening, or early in the morning, many people came over from the Hong Kong Hotel to have a "Look see," among these were the Harri-mans, Carrolls, and several others.

ROOF GARDEN CROWDED

Many people went from the "Gloucester" to the Roof Garden of the Hong Kong Hotel, which, too, was crowded.

Everyone was thrilled by the Austrian pianists, and I am sure we all hope they will be in Hong Kong for a long time.

Mrs. Hinton and Miss Heather Gerard were in the same party, the former in a very striking white dress and the latter looking very ethereal in a lovely shade of pink.

Miss Joan Smalley was very attractive in royal blue. Her brother was also in the same party.

Mrs. Holmes was in a very neat frock of printed design.

There were many other attractive dresses in that exceedingly well-dressed assembly.

Everyone arrived home in the small hours having thoroughly enjoyed themselves, and I think the respective Managements are to be congratulated on their successes.

ROOF GARDEN DINERS

Among those who booked tables in the Hong Kong Roof Garden for the gala opening on Saturday night were the following:

Mr. Almeida, Mr. E. Alves, Mr. R. E. Blyth, Major Brennan, Lt. Baines, Mr. R. H. Burnett, Captain Caffyn, Mr. P. W. Cameron, Lieut.-Comdr. Cartwright, Mr. H. H. Corka, Mr. J. M. Calvert, Mr. A. C. ATLANTIC FLIERS' QUARREL

Petrol Jettisoned By Mr. Richman

PLANE'S PERIL OF PLUNGE IN SEA

Statements made recently by Mr. Harry Richman and Mr. Dick Merrill, who crashed at Musgrave Harbour, 150 miles from S. John's, Newfoundland, on Monday, reveal that a sharp difference of opinion apparently arose between the airmen as they approached the American coast on their 17hr. 41min. flight from England.

According to a reporter of the New York "Daily News," who flew to Musgrave Harbour to interview the fliers, a violent quarrel occurred between the two men in their plane high above the Atlantic some 200 miles from Newfoundland. Mr. Richman, wishing to lighten the machine in its fight against head winds, dumped 500 gallons of petrol overboard.

Merrill, burning with anger, was bitter towards his companion, says the "Daily News" reporter.

As he stood beside his crippled plane, Mr. Merrill is reported to have said, "It was awful. We had enough 'gas' to get to Georgia. Why did we land here in this marsh?"

"I WAS NOTHING ON TRIP"

"Ask Mr. Richman, he is the master mind."

"I was nothing on the trip. Richman makes all his own decisions, and all my arguments on different procedures were thrown away."

Mr. Richman, according to another reporter, declared that the plane was in danger of plunging into the sea because of engine trouble.

"The plane had slowed up perceptibly," he said, "but notwithstanding the defects Merrill wished to continue the flight to the Floyd-Bennett field—the New York airport."

Mr. Richman declined to agree, and a considerable quantity of petrol was jettisoned. The result was that when the machine reached the coastline the supply was running dangerously low.

Both men seemed to be labouring under great strain, upset and weary, and complained impatiently of being unable to get away to return to New York. Their machine is still awaiting the arrival of mechanics in the hope that it can be repaired sufficiently to enable the flight to New York to be completed.

In an attempt to stop the publication of sensational stories in the New York papers Mr. Merrill cabled to New York this afternoon a denial that he had quarrelled with Mr. Richman. "There is no truth in the story that Richman and I had differences," said his message.

MOTOR EXHIBITION AT OLYMPIA

London, Oct. 3.

The thirtieth International Motor Exhibition opens at Olympia on October 15. The exhibition is expected to disclose more new models than any previous event and representatives from 45 overseas countries have signified their intention to attend. There will be approximately 500 cars on view ranging from £3,000 to £100 in price.—British Wireless.

Cameron Highlands. There were many others who it is nice to see back from leave—the Rockingham-Gills, the Kirkbys, the Scotts, Mrs. Scott was in a very dainty organdie dress. Among those of the Navy I saw the Conways, D'Arcy-Evans, Garwoods, Hayters, Mrs. Hayter still beautifully sunburnt from Wei Hai Wei, also lovely Mrs. Jenks, a new arrival of whom we hope we shall see a great deal. Colonel Rodwell came alone as his wife is still laid-up, but we hope to see her about very soon. The Carsons are for home in October by the first trooper, they will be missed by their many friends. Captain Welch came with his daughter Joy. Rumour has it she is to "come-out" very soon. I am afraid there is not enough room to print the names of all who went to this lovely party and I think the Eccles are to be congratulated on the way they made the party go with a swing from start to finish.

FRANCO PREPARING BIG THRUST

Assault On Madrid

HEAVY ARRAY OF BOMBERS

Army Strengthened By Moorish Troops

Lisbon, October 3.

Following his formal installation as supreme nationalist leader, General Franco is reported to have established his new headquarters at Talavera, 45 miles from Toledo, where he is rapidly assembling his troops to attack Madrid. According to an insurgent broadcast 150,000 troops and 150 bombers in addition to cavalry and artillery will be employed in the assault.

In the past three days 12,000 Moorish troops are stated to have been transported across the Straits to General Franco's Madrid army and more still are arriving. In order to cater to the Moors' religious devotions and as recognition of their assistance, it is reported that the insurgents intend to authorise the practice of the Mohammedan religion in the famous mosque at Cordoba, ancient Moorish capital of Spain.—Reuter.

SECOND NAVAL BATTLE

Gibraltar, Oct. 3.

The second naval battle between the government and the insurgents is expected to take place shortly in the Straits of Gibraltar. The Government fleet consisting of one battleship, two cruisers and at least one destroyer which were concentrated in northern Spain in an attempt on the relief of Bilbao is sailing south in order to engage the insurgent fleet in action.—Reuter's Bulletin Service.

GOVERNMENT TROOPS

Madrid, Oct. 3.

The Spanish Government is now supplied with plenty of aeroplanes, according to Colonel Rubio, commanding the Government forces on the Toledo front. Interviewed by Reuter, he stated that the morale of his troops had improved and that his forces were at present enjoying themselves in complete tranquillity.

Last night insurgent planes bombed the outskirts of Madrid, with the object of destroying the Government military aerodrome.

Although the night was favourable for an air raid little damage was done by the insurgent planes, which were later driven off by Government planes and anti-aircraft guns.—Reuter's Bulletin Service.

ASSURANCE TO BRITAIN

London, Oct. 3.

Reuter learns that General Franco through his representative in London has given an assurance that the British Government status quo in Morocco will be respected and denying reports that certain powers have been promised bases in Morocco or the Balearic Islands.—Reuter.

GENEVA DEBATE

London, Oct. 3.

At Geneva today the Assembly of the League of Nations concluded general discussions on the Secretary General's report. The head of the Spanish delegation, the former leader of the Spanish Catholic Party, Senor Ossorio Y. Gallardo, intervened in the debate to make a solemn declaration in defence of legitimacy of the Spanish Government.—British Wireless.

The evacuation of Madrid has begun according to an unconfirmed report. Children and wounded persons are being despatched to Valencia and neighbouring villages.—Reuter.

BOMB FACTORY DEATHS

Rabat, October 4.

An insurgent radio message from Cadix claims that a hundred were killed when a Government bomb factory was destroyed in Friday night's air raid on Madrid.—Reuter.

EXPORT BAN

A Government decree forbids the export of gold and silver and orders Spaniards to hand over to the Bank of Spain all gold ingots and foreign shares in their possession within a week.—Reuter.

NEW SPANISH REGIME

Council Set Up In Burgos

Burgos, Oct. 3.

One of the first acts of General Franco as head of the Spanish State was the foundation of a "Technical Council of State," composed of committees for finance, justice, commerce, industry, agriculture, public education, labour, and communications.

A general Secretariat was also formed, for Foreign affairs, for the purpose of maintaining contact with the consular and diplomatic corps.

The Council includes, moreover, a press and propaganda department, the director of which is responsible directly to the head of the State.—Transocean News Service.

CLEANING UP IN TOLEDO

Burgos, Oct. 3.

The Nationalist troops in Toledo are now completing the "mopping up" operations in Toledo, where some small isolated groups of Reds are still offering resistance. Thus 50 Red militiamen were discovered in a seminary which had been overlooked hitherto, and where they had barricaded themselves behind locked doors with their women and children. The Nationalists were received by a volley of shots when they tried to enter the premises. It has been decided not to force the Reds to move, but to wait till hunger forces the Reds to surrender.—Transocean News Service.

FATAL CLASHES IN BILBAO

Paris, Oct. 3.

Numerous persons are again reported to have been killed in Bilbao during clashes between Anarchists, who are determined to defend the city till the very last, and Basques who demand that Bilbao surrender to the Nationalists in order to avoid its complete destruction. The clashes are reported to have resulted in a great many dead and wounded.—Transocean News Service.

SIGNOR GRANDI'S RECALL

Rome, Oct. 3.

The rumours that the Italian Ambassador to Britain, Dino Grandi, is about to be recalled, are taking pronounced form, and the probability is that Grandi will again be called upon to take over the Secretary-Generalship of the Fascist Party. In that case the present holder of that post, Starace, would become Minister of Interior.—Transocean News Service.

PARIS-SAIGON AIR RACE

A Paris to Saigon air race was announced to-day. It will take place at the end of October.—Reuter's Bulletin Service.

VON STARHEMBERG

PALESTINE DISORDERS DECREASE

Fewer Incidents Reported

NEW GARRISONS IN OUTLYING TOWNS

Jerusalem, October 3.

Lawlessness throughout the country was considerably reduced during the past week. The outrages have decreased in number and size, probably due to the arrival of military reinforcements and the steam roller methods whereby General Dill is suppressing the disturbances.

The new garrisons established in the outlying towns have introduced an atmosphere of security. Numerous Arab shopkeepers have reopened and the shops are doing a brisk trade with the soldiers.

Peace efforts through joint mediation of the Arab Kings, however, may have been jeopardised owing to traditional jealousies. King Ghazi, it is feared, will resent the greater prominence given to Ibn Saud's efforts compared with those of the Iraqi Foreign Minister, Nuri Pasha.—Reuter.

MARTIAL LAW IN ABEYANCE

Jerusalem, Oct. 4.

As the result of increased hopes of settlement of the Arab strike, it is understood that the Government intends to hold in abeyance at present the proclamation of martial law in Palestine.

A more optimistic spirit prevailed in Arab circles last evening after an all-day meeting of the Arab Higher Committee who discussed amendments to the proposal to the Arab Kings for inclusion of their appeal for calling off the strike, and also discussed the manifesto to be issued when the appeal is received.—Reuter.

FURTHER REINFORCEMENTS

London, Oct. 3.

Further reinforcements consisting of the 2nd battalion Buffs, 3rd battalion Coldstream Guards and detachments of the Royal Army Medical Corps and Royal Army Medical Corps left England to-day for Palestine.—British Wireless.

TINDALE'S BIBLE TRANSLATIONS

London Oct. 3.

Thousands of churches to-morrow will read portions of the Bible as first translated into English 400 years ago by Tindale in commemoration of the anniversary of his burning in Brussels as a heretic for the translation.

The British and Foreign Bible Society has distributed 15,000 pamphlets in Great Britain, and Ireland containing extracts from Tindale's Bible for reading to-morrow, showing the remarkable similarity of his translation with the Authorised Version, the compilers of which drew largely on Tindale, in view of his unsurpassed scholarship and knowledge of Hebrew and Greek.—Reuter.

SULTAN VISITS LONDON

London, Oct. 3.

The Sultan of Selangor, Federated Malay States, reached London this afternoon and was met by Rear-Admiral A. Bromley representing the Secretary for Colonies.—British Wireless.

HEIMWEHR DISPUTE

Starhemberg Defied

INCAPABLE AS LEADER

Major Fey Assumes Command

(“Hong Kong Daily Press” Special)

Vienna, Oct. 3.

Major Fey turned the tables when, as a reply to the order issued by Prince von Starhemberg on Friday evening excluding him from the Heimwehr, he published a statement announcing that he has been elected as leader of the Viennese group of the Heimwehr and had taken over command on Saturday.

Prince von Starhemberg's statement issued by the press bureau of the Heimwehr on Friday evening did not appear in the Vienna newspapers, and it is understood that in his conversation with Dr. Schuschnigg on Friday Major Fey succeeded in its publication being prohibited.

In his own communique Major Fey states that the crisis in the Heimwehr is due to the incapability and lack of interest of the Federal Heimwehr leader, Starhemberg. In recognition of this fact he had caused the members of the movement to demand a “new leadership and particularly the recall of old and trusted leaders.” Since Starhemberg was continually away travelling or hunting Major Fey was legally elected leader of the Vienna district.

Dealing with the insinuations against Major Fey's behaviour during the revolt of July 25, 1934, the statement declares them to be absolutely groundless. Several commissions of enquiry had found his action at the time to be correct and proper and he had subsequently been entrusted for eighteen months with a ministerial post which he had left with high marks of distinction.

Further developments in the present piquant situation provided by the claimants to the command of Vienna is difficult to foretell, but the general view is that Starhemberg had made none too happy a move in taking such vigorous action against Major Fey, who is very popular in all parts of Austria and regarded as a more capable leader.—Transocean News Service.

THREAT TO SHOOT EDINBURGH LORD PROVOST

Letter By Man With Pension Grievance

WROTE TO MINISTER OF LABOUR

“If this is not rectified soon I will shoot the Lord Provost.”

This was one of the many striking statements contained in a letter which was written by a man who was troubled by a pension grievance to Mr Ernest Brown, the Minister of Labour, the sequel to which was heard in Edinburgh Sheriff Court recently.

The accused was James Andrew Easton (57), staff-light extinguisher, of Grassmarket, Edinburgh, and the charge to which he pleaded guilty was that on August 15, in Edinburgh, he wrote and posted or caused to be posted to Mr Ernest Brown, Minister of Labour, a letter which “contains a threat to do bodily injury to the Lord Provost of the city of Edinburgh.” Easton said: “I admit writing and posting the letter. I don't admit anything in regard to a threat. It was intended as a joke.”

“SIMPLY A JOKE.” “I never had any intention of threatening at all. I would not know the Lord Provost if I met him in the street. (Laughter.) It was simply a joke.” The Sheriff: “Was the whole letter a joke? The other part was not a joke. I am getting swindled out of my pension.”

MAJOR EMIL FEY

PARIS WAITERS ON STRIKE

Famous Boulevards Gone Dry

Paris, Oct. 3.

The famous boulevards have gone dry as the result of a general strike of waiters and other employers of hundreds of hotels, cafes, and restaurants.

Over 6,000 mobile police are picking the streets and squares. The authorities are determined to prevent stay-in strikes and strong forces of police compelled the waiters to evacuate the big cafes and restaurants in the main thoroughfares of the city.—Reuter's Bulletin Service.

SMALL PLACES BENEFIT

Paris, Oct. 3.

The strike parole was strictly obeyed by all the hotel and restaurant employees on Saturday so that the only places where meals could be obtained were the small restaurants and cafes run as family concerns without outside help. They did a roaring trade.

The strike was also a godsend to provision shops which literally were besieged since midday by crowds of hungry Parisians. Even well-dressed men could be seen walking about the streets with a chunk of bread in one hand and a piece of sausage or meat in the other.

Hotel guests were not only unable to obtain food but had also to make their own beds and carry out other menial duties usually performed by chambermaids.

Later: The hotel and restaurant employees' strike was settled late on Saturday evening, through the mediation of all hotels and restaurants and they will be open for business as usual on Sunday.—Transocean News Service.

TWO NEW LEAGUE SEATS

Geneva, Oct. 3.

The Assembly adopted the First Commission's resolution providing for the creation of two new provisional non-permanent seats on the Council. It is understood that China and Latvia will be elected thereto on October 5 or 6.—Reuter.

The Sheriff: “You end up, ‘Well, goodbye and good luck.’ There is nothing wrong with that, sir. The Sheriff: “You also say, ‘Hope you enjoy the recess. Yours sincerely.’ It rather takes the edge of the treat.”

“I am disposed to think in view of the whole circumstances and especially the latter part of the letter that it would probably be a mistake to treat the thing as a serious threat on the Lord Provost's life,” said the Sheriff. “But I will just give you a grave warning that it is not only a very foolish but a wrong thing to write letters with threats even in jokes.”

The letter in the case was in the following style:— “Sir—How much longer is this farce going to continue? I was discharged at Aldershot on June 10, 1915, medically unfit, for further medical service through loss of index finger, right hand.”

“I had six years' eighty days service. You don't get Service pensions for that. My pension is 5s 3d per week disability. Why do the Unemployment Assistance Board deduct that amount and pay me 11s 9d? They have no right to interfere with it. I have been paid 11s 9d the last two weeks at the Exchange in Leith. The sooner this is rectified the better.”

“They maintain it is a Service pension. Did you ever hear of a Service pension granted for six years' eighty days? That must have been in the bow-and-arrow days. If this is not rectified soon I will shoot the Lord Provost.”

NEW MONETARY LAW IN FRANCE

Beginning Of Era Of Prosperity

GOVERNMENT ISSUES WARNING

Action Against Unjustified Raising Of Prices

Paris, October 3.

In publishing a proclamation which will be posted up throughout the country, the Government declares that the new monetary law marks the beginning of an era of prosperity, but only on condition that prices remain stable.

The Government can prevent undue increases in prices by lowering customs duties. The proclamation expresses the belief of the Government that it can count on the majority of industrialists and business people to oppose any unjustified rise in prices, and calls on the public to report all such cases which will be immediately and severely dealt with.—Reuter.

CHANGE IN POLICY

Paris, Oct. 3.

M. Bastid, French Minister of Commerce, in announcing the new French economic policy aiming at abolition of all quotas, exchange control and clearing houses, added that France cannot be expected to continue such a liberal policy unless it evokes reciprocity from other powers.—Reuter.

IMPORT DUTY REDUCED

Paris, Oct. 3.

The French Government issued a decree on Saturday reducing the import duty 20 per cent. on raw materials, 17 per cent. on half finished foods, and 15 per cent. on finished products. The decree which will come into force on October 10 is intended to be a measure to prevent price increases.—Transocean News Service.

FUTURE OF LIRA

Rome, Oct. 3.

Consultations between Signor Mussolini and his advisers regarding the lira will conclude on October 5 when the Cabinet meets at 10 a.m., after which a communique thereon may be expected. It is generally believed that the lira will not be devalued till world alignment can be made.

In the meantime it is believed that the tourist industry will be helped by the increasing tourist lira rate, giving foreign visitors probably 92 instead of 82 lire per pound compared with the present official rate of 64.

Similar assistance is expected to be given to export industries by increasing the export duties at the same rate.

Payment of export bounties was practically suspended this week in anticipation of the change.—Reuter.

PORTRAIT OF NAVAL HERO

Rear-Admiral Broke Of The Shannon

A portrait that should attract wide attention when exhibited at the Antique Dealers' Fair at Grosvenor House is one by Samuel Lane, recently discovered, of Rear-Admiral Sir P. B. V. Broke (1776-1841), hero of the action between the Shannon and the Chesapeake.

It is known that Lane painted a large canvas of the Admiral measuring 94in. by 57in. which, when exhibited at the National Portrait Exhibition, was in the collection of Admiral Sir G. Broke Middleton, but the present portrait, a much smaller version measuring 38in. by 28in., is apparently new to students of naval portraiture. When acquired, the identity of the admiral was unknown until it was compared with an engraving of the larger picture.

It was on June 1, 1813, that the British frigate Shannon (Captain Broke), while reconnoitring Boston Harbour, received information that the American frigate Chesapeake (Captain Lawrence) was being fitted out there. Thereupon Captain Broke wrote challenging the American to a duel. Captain Lawrence did not receive the letter, but nevertheless came out to fight. After a vigorous action lasting barely 15 minutes, in which

CZECH KRONE TO BE DEVALUED

Prague, Oct. 3.

The Czech Krone will definitely be devalued according to an official communique issued on Saturday which states that the Economic and Financial Ministers and representatives of the National Bank will meet on Monday in order to draft a bill for the reduction of the gold content of the Czech krone.

The official statement points out that this measure will provide for the devaluation of the krone, which took place in 1934, being extended only to a degree which has become unavoidable for Czechoslovakia after the French and Dutch devaluations. The Government will take necessary measures to prevent unjustified raising of prices.

The two chambers of the National Assembly will meet on October 7 and 9 respectively to consider the Government's currency measure.—Transocean News Service.

WHERE THE KING LEARNT HOW TO FISH

The fishing temple at Virginia Water, erected by George IV. when the lake was constructed, is to be demolished.

The King has decided that this pavilion, which is of Chinese design, and the adjoining boat-houses should be pulled down. From the windows of Fort Belvedere, the King's Berkshire residence, a splendid view of the lake is obtained, and these buildings interrupt the view.

The temple was used for entertaining guests when King George IV. and King William IV. gave parties there. Queen Victoria sometimes took tea there, and King Edward VII. entertained there on Ascot Sundays. King Edward and his brothers were taught to fish from the splendid fishing gallery which ran the length of the temple over the lake.

SIR HARRY FOX

London, Oct. 2.

The death has occurred of Sir Harry Fox, K.B.E., C.M.G., who was for many years in the consular service in China, from which he retired in 1930.—Reuter.

Broke's heavily lost his life, the American frigate was captured, her commander being mortally wounded.

This victory, gained at a time of national depression, was hailed with enthusiasm. Broke being raised to the title of baronet and subsequently to the rank of rear-admiral. This episode, however, was the only one of note in an otherwise uneventful career.

Samuel Lane (1780-1859), the artist, deaf and nearly dumb, was a pupil of both Joseph Parrott and Sir Thomas Lawrence. Though not in the first ranks his portraits are notable for the accuracy of the likeness. His popularity can be gauged from the fact that between 1804 and 1857 he exhibited more than 200 portraits at the Royal Academy.

A remarkable performance by Lau Po Hei, the Colony and Interport back-stroke swimming champion, when he won four events, was second in another event, and annexed third place in three further events, featured the annual swimming sports of the H.K. University held at the Y.M.C.A. bath on Saturday afternoon.

SURPRISE FEATURE OF WEEK-END FOOTBALL

Mineral deficiency

stands between you and REAL HEALTH

One small defect impairs the efficiency of the most perfect piece of mechanism. And that applies to nature's masterpiece—your body. If the cells are starved of health follows. Calcium is the one vital mineral without which the life centre of the body cells would shrivel and die, and Kalzana supplies this element in a form which the system can easily assimilate and retain.

By remedying this deficiency and making the cell-nucleus plump and strong, Kalzana gets right to the root of ill health. Kalzana improves the condition of the blood, strengthens the whole body and supplies the teeth with the elements they need to keep them hard and white and immune from decay. A course of Kalzana quickly gives new strength and vigour—begin yours to-day.

"I am never without Kalzana, not taking them always, but at any time of extra strain, and when there are colds and other infections about."

YANKEES LEAD GIANTS

Favoured To Win World Series

RECORD ATTENDANCE AT BALL GAME

New York, Oct. 3. Starting favourites by five to three, the New York Yankees defeated the New York Giants in the third baseball game of the World Series at the Yankee Stadium to-day. A crowd of nearly 70,000 spectators, the largest in the history of the series, was present to watch the classic game. The weather was fine. As a result of their victory, the Yankees are now leading by two games to one and are favourites to win the series. The official attendance was 64,842, the gate money totalling $235,108. The previous world record attendance for the World Series was 63,600 at the Yankee Stadium in 1926 when the gate was $224,130.

The score of to-day's game was:

R. H. E.
Yankees 2 4 0
Giants 1 11 0

Fitz Simmons pitched superbly for the Giants and held the Yankees to four hits.

Hadley pitched during the first eight innings for the Yankees but was replaced by Pat Malone in the ninth after allowing four hits in the preceding four innings.

The Yankees were the first to score when Lou Gehrig clouted a home run in the second inning with none on the bases.

The Giants retaliated and in the fifth inning scored a home run through Rippe. Thereafter the score was tied until the eighth inning when Crisetti hit a single to send in Powell.

YANKEES WIN SECOND OF SERIES

New York, Oct. 2. The New York Yankees evened up the World Series with the New York Giants with a victory to-day, scoring eighteen runs on seventeen hits to the Giants' four runs on six connections. Each team had one error. The Yankees set up a new record for runs scored in a World Series game.

The Yankees scored seven runs in the third inning, when Lazzeri hit a home run with the bases full, and six in the ninth when Dickey homered with two on. The Giants scored one run in the second to tie the score and three in the fourth. Lazzeri's feat has only once before been equalled.

Despite the fine, sunny weather the Yankee Stadium was not filled to capacity, the crowd totalling 43,000, with President F. D. Roosevelt throwing the first ball.

The Giants used five pitchers in a vain attempt to curtail the Yankees' scoring spree. Gomez pitched the whole game for the Yankees. Giants started Schumacher, whose control was bad, and he was replaced by Al Smith. Dick Coffman came out next, and then Frank Gabler. Harry Gumbert took over in the ninth inning. Schumacher is held responsible for the loss.

LOVELOCK BEATEN

"Mile Of Century" Race

SAN ROMANI WINS

New York, Oct. 3. A large crowd at the Palmer Stadium, Princeton, to-day saw San Romani win the "Mile of the Century" race when he beat Jack Lovelock, the New Zealander and world mile record holder.

It was a close race. Romani won in the time of 4 mins. 9 secs, with Lovelock breasting the tape two yards behind him.

Glen Cunningham was third being four yards behind the New Zealander.

At the Olympic Games at Berlin on August 6, Lovelock won the 1,500 metres flat race in the record time of 3 mins. 47.8 secs. Cunningham was second.

In the "Mile of the Century" race run in America last year, Lovelock was first beating Cunningham by a few yards.

THE SHARE MARKET

Harriman's Weekly Review

Saturday, Oct. 3.
Messrs. G. A. Harriman & Co's. weekly share report and market review issued at noon to-day states:—

After several very active weeks the market has sobered down somewhat, rather more particularly in local descriptions than in gold mining shares, which are in renewed demand, the leaders especially at ever advancing prices. Disturbed political relations in North China appear to have caused a slackening of buying enquiry for Hong Kong stocks, but this should be only of a temporary nature as the undertone is quite good.

The devaluation of the Franc caused operators in the Manila market to be cautious and for the early part of the week that market was hesitant and the trend became definitely bullish and at the close of the week's trading a very substantial improvement in quotations has been established.

Local utility stocks close slightly lower this week, the following being closing prices:—Hong Kong Electric $541. Hong Kong Trams $12.50. China Lights (old) $14.50. Telephones (old) $30.50 and Star Ferris $94.50. There are still buyers for Sandakan Lights and offers of shares are invited. Hotels have eased to $6.10. Lands were placed at $41. Realty is obtainable at $5.75. Wharves made $117. but close $1 below this price. Providents (old) have declined to $2.20 after topping $2.40 earlier in the week. Docks are wanted at $13.75. Unions and Banks have maintained last week's rates at $580 and $1610 respectively. Dairies made $23.25, but close available at $23. Cements are below best. Sellers prepared to part at $11.50.

Ewos were further supported up to $810.40 and Loongs Sings were bought up to $820.

PHILIPPINE MINING

Among Philippine mining shares outstanding features of strength were San Mauricio up to $6.40, United Paracale $3.40, Antamoks $8.10, Demonstrations $1.65. Big Wedge 90 cts. and Atoks $1.81. A large business was done in Suyocs between $1.29 & $1.26, but the closing rate of $1.28 is about the same as the opening on Monday, although 18 cents higher than this time last week. Paracale Cumans were taken up to $1.40. Benguet Explorations made 46 cts. Salacots 19 cents and Masbates $1.07. Baguio Gold are quietly steady at 62 cts. middle and Ipos at 38 cts. Consolidated Mines have declined to 101 cts.

At close Hong Kong stocks are rather on the easy side, but Manila shares end up strong and active with buyers still anxious to add to their holdings.

PRICE CONTROL IN FRANCE

Customs Commission Established

Paris, Oct. 3.
Cobden must have turned in his grave, but this time with delight, on the publication in to-day's "Journal Officiel" decreeing the establishment of a French Customs Commission for the control of prices "in order to avoid any unjustified rise in prices by means of the introduction of greater quantities of competing foreign goods in the French market."

The importance of this measure viewed in the proper light as a step towards international free trade, is stressed by the announcement that the scope of the commission will include recommendations for the lowering of the import duties, taxes and licences and the relaxation of quotas, even perhaps of their abolition in certain cases.

Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Paraguay, and Argentina have particular reason to congratulate themselves since another decree abolishes, effective from October 10, the compensatory exchange taxes "applied to goods produced by these countries or coming from them. The maximum compensatory tax, applied against China and Japan, of 10 per cent., is effective on October 10.

Numerous other decrees concern the reduction of Customs duties on raw material by 20 per cent., semi-manufactured goods by 17 and manufactured goods by 15, while the general rate of taxes on the imports of goods which are subject to a quota will also be reduced by 20 per cent., effective on October 10.

It is to be noted that the present devaluation by 30 per cent. itself acts as an additional tariff barrier for French industry, and that therefore any reduction of duties up to that limit is nothing but a readjustment to the altered currency basis.

GERMAN SEA POWER

New Battleship Launched

FIRST BUILT SINCE WORLD WAR

"Hong Kong Daily Press" Special.

Wilhelmshaven, Oct. 3.

In the course of a speech delivered by The Reichs War Minister and Commander-in-Chief of the German Defence Forces, General von Blomberg at the launching ceremony for one of Germany's battleships, he laid stress on the importance of the occasion—the first launching of this type of craft in two years.

It was true, however, to state that a number of submarines and smaller vessels had been launched from the yards, which showed the world that as far as naval armaments were concerned, the fetters laid on Germany by the Versailles Treaty had been broken.

But the mighty ship now about to take the water meant something more—it was the symbol of complete sovereignty of the Third Reich in the realm of National Defence. This was the first battleship built since the World War and was the emblem of Germany's re-instituted sea power.

The first battleship was named Scharnhorst.

TENSION EASED IN SHANGHAI

Hongkew Patrols
Reduced

WAITING FOR ENVOY
FROM TOKYO

Shanghai, Oct. 3.
The Japanese marine patrols and sentries in Hongkew were greatly reduced this morning. The tension has relaxed.
Political circles express the opinion that a breathing spell has been given as a result of the decision in Tokyo to send Mr. Kuwashima, the Director of the East Asia Bureau of the Foreign Office, to China, in order to convey fresh instructions to Mr. Kawagoe, the Japanese Ambassador, to China. The envoy is arriving at Shanghai on Monday.—Reuter.

CALL ON AMBASSADOR

Nanking, Oct. 3.
Mr. Kao Tsung-wu, Chief of the Asiatic Affairs Department of the Foreign Office, who recently interviewed General Chiang Kai-shek at Canton and later at Kuling, this morning called on Mr. Kuwashima, the Japanese Ambassador to China, the interview lasting an hour.

Mr. Kuwashima is expected here on Monday, and will be staying four or five days. After his arrival Mr. Kuwashima will interview Mr. Kawagoe, conveying the Japanese Government's instructions, and he will later call on General Chan Chun, the Minister for Foreign Affairs.

While there will be a preliminary exchange of views between Mr. Kuwashima, Mr. Kawagoe and General Chan Chun, it is understood that the most important stage of the present negotiations will begin after October 10.—Reuter.

TOKYO STATEMENT

Tokyo, Oct. 3.
Mr. Kuwashima, en route to Kobe to catch the Nagasaki Maru, interviewed, talked at length about the Sino-Japanese situation. He brought a somewhat obscure statement to a conclusion by saying: "The proposals Japan has submitted to China do not constitute demands. The proposals aim at the readjustment of the Sino-Japanese relations in a sincere way. There can be no mutual confession by either side. If the Chinese side does not understand this fundamental principle there can be no negotiations."

He stated that important items in the forthcoming negotiations include not only the eradication of anti-Japanism but the settlement of China's recognition of Japan's special position in North China.—Reuter.

BRITISH CONCERN IN FAR EAST

Information Exchanged
At Washington

London, Oct. 3.
Well-informed quarters reaffirm that Britain is not disinterested in the present Far Eastern crisis. Stress is laid on the importance of British interests in China which would be affected either by a Japanese protectorate over the whole or part of China or by war between China and Japan.

British circles continue to regard the situation as not only very delicate but very serious. It is probable that the British views have already been made known to the Chinese and Japanese Governments.

The British and American Governments have exchanged information on the Far Eastern crisis at Washington.—Reuter.

"SEASON" OPENED BRILLIANTLY

The huge Typhoon Bar in the Gloucester presented a very animated spectacle, and so great was the demand for accommodation that every table and chair right round the apical balcony was occupied.

Such was the success of Saturday night's frivols that, although the official closing time was three o'clock in the morning, yet few were inclined to leave the pleasures of the Roof Garden, Gloucester ballroom or the German village until much later than that. It was the sort of opening that made one relish the fact that perhaps the time has arrived when we can all say, "The depression WAS awful."

border lies in the Kingdom of Leon into an independent State in the eleventh century. In her Hall of Fame are inscribed the names of those men who, by their patriotism and determination to further the territorial expansions of the motherland, adventured into unknown lands and over strange seas. This period of discovery was the most illustrious and picturesque chapter in her history, beginning early in the fifteenth century and extending for some 85 years.

The modern history of Portugal began 25 years ago with the proclamation of the Republic on October 5, 1910, after a short revolution, when a provisional Government was established, with Dr. Theophilo Braga as the Provisional President. Following him there were eight duly elected presidents and on March 19, 1933, the "Estado Novo" Constitution (providing for a Dictatorship on a corporative basis) was adopted, this Constitution providing for a President to be elected for seven years.

PRESENT LEADERS

The present President, General Antonio Oscar de Fragoso Carmona, began his career as the country's ruler on November 29, 1926, and has since been twice re-elected to the position. The present Cabinet, under Dr. Antonio de Oliveira Salazar, has perhaps achieved more for the country than any other past regimes through the genius of its leader who, as Prime Minister and Minister of Finance, has had almost an equal share with General Carmona toward shaping the destiny of present-day Portugal.

The efforts of the leaders of the Republic in recent history show a concentration upon the development of the resources of the country and her colonies. It is significant that Portugal, almost alone among the nations of the world, has had a balanced budget since 1930-31, resulting in the steady development of agriculture and industry. She has taken her appointed place among the modern hegemony of States, having also been duly elected to a permanent seat on the Council of the League of Nations. Among the features of her modern developments may be counted her activities in all the fields of construction, social, communication and scientific work. In her social work she has afforded protection to mothers and children, invalids and the unemployed.
